The Ascension of the Lord Year B, 12th May 2024 'Go out to the whole world!'

I come to pray the texts for the feast of the Ascension and ask the Lord for a deeper understanding of this mystery of Christ. Throughout the Easter-tide readings, we have watched the disciples grow and mature in faith – I wish to do the same.

The First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles marks the end of Jesus's earthly ministry as he returns to the Father and promises to send the Holy Spirit.

The Psalm is a joyful prayer of praise and an acclamation of Christ's victory. He is Lord of all people, of the universe.

St Paul describes the meaning of the Ascension – the Father has raised Jesus above all powers and made him Lord of creation. The gifts of the Spirit are given for the good of all, to lead us to full maturity in Christ. (Second Reading)

In the Gospel, Jesus ascends to heaven and continues to work with his disciples as they preach the Good News. The signs he works confirm their message.

This week, we might want to pray for the opportunity to proclaim the Good News to as many people as possible.

Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate Ascension Sunday. Based on the Acts of the Apostles, the Church holds that Jesus ascended into heaven 40 days after His resurrection on Easter Sunday. St. Augustine, who lived in the fifth century offers us a good reflection on this feast based on the words of St. Paul in his letter to the Colossians (Col. 3:1-4):

“Today our Lord Jesus Christ ascended into heaven; let our hearts ascend with him. Listen to the words of the Apostle: If you have risen with Christ, set your hearts on the things that are above where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God; seek the things that are above, not the things that are on earth. For just as he remained with us even after his ascension, so we too are already in heaven with him, even though what is promised us has not yet been fulfilled in our bodies.” Through his resurrection and ascension, Christ is here with us on earth by His divinity, and we are in Heaven with Him by His love (source: Hollow)

We also celebrate today Mother's Day. Mother's Day is celebrated internationally on the second Sunday in May. Mother's Day first took place in the USA in 1908. It was founded by Anna Marie Jarvis, to honour her mother. It became an official holiday in West Virginia in 1910 on the second Sunday of May. In 1915, International Mother's Day became an official holiday in Canada, and people have celebrated it ever since.

Although we're not all mothers, we all have mothers: biological and adoptive, God-mothers or spiritual mothers, room moms and dorm moms, moms by choice and moms by accident, stay-at-home moms and working moms. This is a day to also remember mothers who have died. We pray for their eternal rest in God's kingdom.

Have a blessed week!

Father Rey
